JAMES MACK IS CALLED BY DEATH

Funeral Services to Be Held in Smithfield on Sunday Died in Ogden

Ogden, Dec. 27.—After a lingering illness of kidney trouble James Mack, aged 79, president and founder of the Ogden Milling & Elevator Company and a director in several industries of the state, died tonight at his residence, 1462 Washington avenue.

Born in Scotland, he was christened James McCracken, but several years ago changed his name. With a pioneer train he came to Utah in 1855. He resided for a time in Salt Lake and the southern part of the state, later removing to Cache county, where he built a flour mill at Smithfield.

In 1883 he came to Ogden, where he established the Ogden Milling & Elevator company. He became a director in the Pingree National bank, the Ogden Packing & Provision company and was interested in the Amalgamated Sugar Company and also other sugar companies of the state as well as in the cement industry.

He held several positions in the Mormon church. Mr. Mack leaves a wife, five sons, James, Henry C., C. W., Glen H. and N. N. Mack and four daughters, Mrs. R. L. Fishburn, Brigham City; Mrs. F. W. Fishburn, Brigham City; Mrs. F. B. Wadleigh and Miss Ada Mack, both of Ogden.

Funeral services will be held Sunday in Smithfield where the remains will be interred.

Remains may be viewed from 12 to 1 o'clock in the old Mack home at Smithfield on Sunday.

RIVER HEIGHTS HAS AMUSEMENTS CHRISTMAS DAY

River Heights, Dec. 28.—River Heights is one hundred per cent in amusements as well as in church organizations.

On Christmas Day in the afternoon the Sunday School gave the children a dance and the little folks had a fine time. In the evening there was a free dance for everybody. Not so many old folks were present as they were too full of turkey to come out. But the young people turned out in good style, and a splendid time was had by all. The music was furnished by Lehi Bindrup and Abraham Lozier.

The following program was well rendered at the Sunday School last Sunday:

Prelude ..... Instrumental
Loretta Wilson, Abraham Lozier, and Leroy Wilson.
Song ..... School
Prayer ..... Bishop Olsen
Song ..... School
Song ..... School
Talk ..... Supt Joseph Wilson
Select Reading ..... Irene Ricks
Song ..... Eight Young Ladies
Christmas Talk ..... Joel Ricks
Song, Silent Night .....
Leon Pickett, Carl Wood, E. Maughan, Vanez Wilson.

Christmas Story ..... Ella Olson
Benediction ..... Karl Kowallie
William Smith and F. W. Mitchell, counselors to the president of the high priests quorum of Cache stake, attended the priesthood meeting last Sunday in their official capacity.

Albert Nielson is spending Christmas week with his mother at Richland, Utah.

Clifford and Glen Anderson of Millville attended the dance Christmas night.

Richard Peterson and wife are making a Christmas visit with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Christian Hanson.

Santa Claus visited a number of families on Christmas Eve. He was escorted by Chris Borfva and was a source of amusement to both old and young.

River Heights Mutual will give a program and dance at the amusement hall Friday evening, December 31 at 7:30.

Bishop Olson, John Wood and Peter Maughan have had a surveyor run the lines on a piece of land they have owned in partnership for some time and will divide the same.

The land lies on the bank of Logan river adjoining River Heights, on the northeast and has some fine springs on it. Peter Maughan will pipe his share of the water to his house for domestic purposes.

Miss Esther Olson is entertaining her friend, Miss Hilda Keven of Salt Lake for a few days.

Irene Davis of Garland is visiting with her sister Mrs. Heber Olson.

C. W. Anderson of Lewiston, spent Sunday with Bishop Olson.

Professor J. Carl Wood has purchased two acres of land on River Heights from Albert Nielson and will erect a residence on the same in the near future for a home.

Chas. Barfus had the misfortune to lose a fine horse, while kicking in the stall he caught his leg and broke it so it was necessary to kill him.

Mrs. John Sandberg who has been making an extended visit with her parents Mr. and Mrs. E. D. McCombs has returned to her home in Weston.

Bishop Olson is doing some fine finishing work on the interior of the Logan Temple.

Linhard T. Wendell, is doing the interior finishing on a residence in Wellsville.

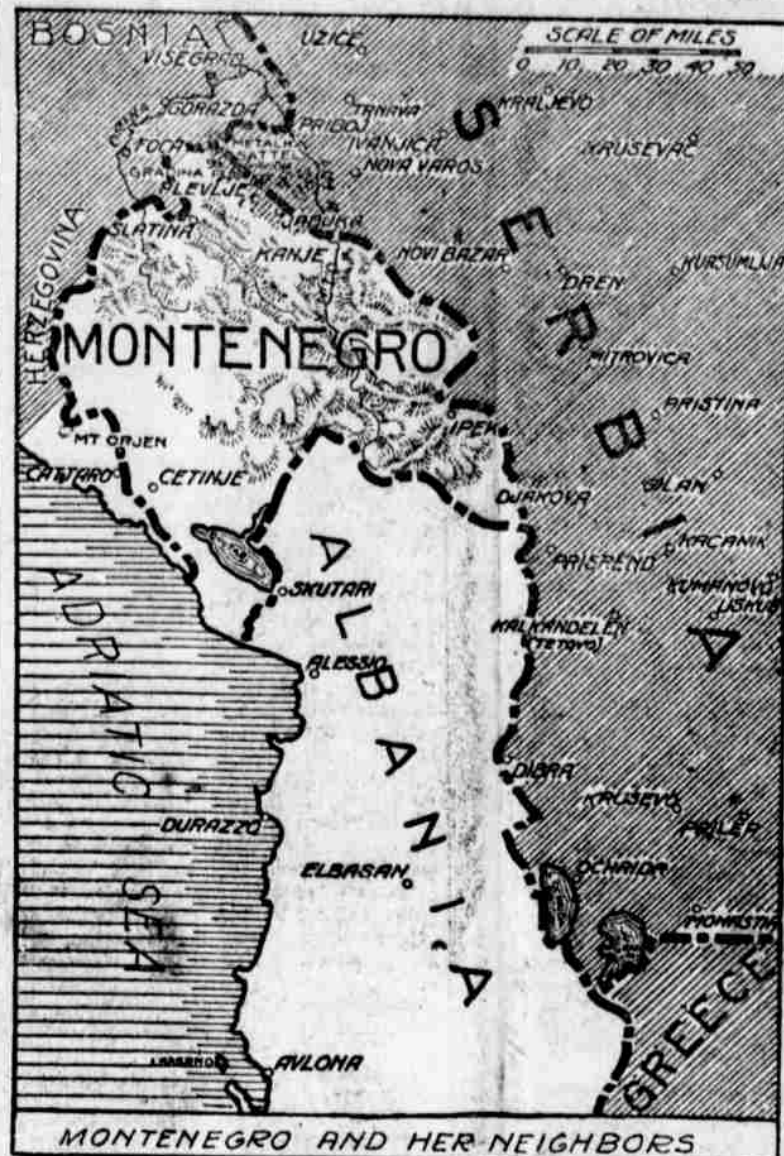

Rudolph Hochstrasser who owns a

Wellsville, Dec. 29.—On Friday evening December 31, the Wellsville basketball team which won the county school championship in 1914, will meet the Richmond team. These two teams have always been rivals and have played fast ball in the past. A good game is assured.

SERVIA ALL OCCUPIED, TEUTON ARMIES TURN ATTENTION TO MONTENEGRO.

Montenegro, the only country of southeastern Europe which successfully resisted the great wave of Turkish invasion in the middle ages and which, since the fall of the Roman empire, has acknowledged no alien master, is now menaced by invasion from the conquered territory of Serbia. Since the beginning of the war Montenegro, "the country of the black mountain," has stood faithfully by the side of its neighbor, Serbia, a kindred Slavic nation. King Nicholas of Montenegro is the father-in-law of King Victor Emmanuel of Italy, and throughout Italy the greatest sympathy is felt for Montenegro.

On account of the low rates on the interurban, a large crowd expects to accompany the Richmond players. There will be a big dance after the game. Everybody should be out and see these two fast basketball teams play Friday night.

HORSEMAN MAY COME HERE TO TRAIN HORSES

Dr. Roy Rodgers of St. Anthony, Idaho, has written that he desires to train harness horses at the Cache County Fair Grounds for the coming year. He has nine head and will be glad to take any other horses he can get.

All the horsemen like to train at the fair grounds owing to the convenient stalls, plenty of clear water near by, grassy paddocks for exercising, and best of all, the live track. It is expected that other horsemen will be here. Dr. Rodgers desires to come about February 1 in order to commence work early in the spring as soon as the track is in condition.

There is no doubt but that the officers of the Fair association will be glad to welcome Dr. Rodgers or any others who desire to come.

MRS. RAYMOND DIED SUDDENLY AT HER HOME

Mrs. William G. Raymond, 47 years of age, and mother of six children, died very suddenly at her home in Smithfield Monday night. She complained in the afternoon and died at 8 o'clock in the evening.

Mrs. Raymond was the daughter of George L. Farrell and the late Amanda Farrell who was killed in Logan about a year ago by the Ogden, Logan & Idaho Railway Company car.

Funeral services will be held in Smithfield today at 1 o'clock.

50TH MARRIAGE ANNIVERSARY IS CELEBRATED

On Christmas Eve Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Miller celebrated their Golden wedding at their home on Second South street. Fifty years ago they came across the plains with an ox team company, arriving in Salt Lake City late in the fall.

In December they decided to go to Cache Valley which has been their home since living in Providence forty-five years and the last five in Logan, where Mr. Miller is engaged in temple work.

They were married at Providence on December 24, 1865. President Wm. Budge then bishop of that place performed the ceremony.

WHAT OTHERS ARE SAYING ABOUT CARMEN

"Boston has accepted the filmed Carmen as more interesting scenically, more thrilling as to story, and more intense as to acting than any operatic Carmen it has ever seen."—Leslie H. Allen in the Motion Picture News.

"It chilled even while it inspired. The first presentation of the pictureization of Carmen to all who witnessed it was something never to be forgotten."—Boston Post.

"You will never grasp the full beauty of grand opera's most celebrated star until she has enthralled you from the screen in the witchery of Carmen. Farrar, in her first attempt for the screen, has shown the faddish vampire delineator the way into the public heart. She has portrayed a Carmen that will live, because her work carries the universal appeal that takes root in the heart."—Atlanta (Ga.) Constitution.

"Of the skill with which the pictures are posed, the excellent fitness with which each type of character was cast, the amazing daring displayed in the smuggling scenes and

MENDON FOLK CELEBRATE ON CHRISTMAS DAY

Mendon, Dec. 28.—Christmas day was celebrated in grand style in Mendon. At 10 o'clock everyone assembled at the church house where the following program was rendered. Christmas talk, Vance Walker; vocal solo, Lucille Hardman; monolog, L. K. Wood; male quartet, Arnold Gardner and company; recitation, Lizzie Barrett; duet, Julia Ahrens and company; Christmas story, Rhoda Sorensen.

Then prizes were distributed from Xmas trees to all the lower classes. This has been the custom here for a number of years, the child with the highest number of marks gets the first draw and so on. In the afternoon the little folks enjoyed themselves in a dance in the amusement hall. At the close of the dance they were all visited by Santa Claus who gave each child a bag of nuts and candy. The dance in the evening was a grand success.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Welch of Gooding, Idaho, are spending the holidays in Mendon the guests of Mrs. Welch's parents Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Sorensen.

Miss Laurine Anderson has gone to Salt Lake to spend the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Poulsen and family of Alberta, Canada, are spending the holidays in Mendon.

The Mendon Dramatic Company will present the drama, The Blossoming of Mary Anne, Wednesday evening. Those taking part in the play are: The Misses Ethel Sorensen, Lizzie Barrett, Laura Hardman, Eva Smith, Orpha Larsen, Alice Sorensen, Annie Hughes, Nora Ahrens; Messrs Vance Walker, Frank Sorensen, Arnold Gardner, H. J. Richards.

Miss Ruby Patrick of Salt Lake City spent Christmas here the guest of her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Larsen.

Miss Audrey Todd of Salt Lake is spending the holidays in Mendon.

Mr. Arthur Lemmon and family spent Christmas here with his mother Mrs. Jasper Lemmon.

The meeting Sunday evening was occupied by the Sunday School. The following program was rendered: Talk, J. S. Welch of Gooding, Idaho; Ladies quartet, Ethel Sorensen and company; talk, Allan Willie.

A. Buist and family of Wellsville spent Christmas in Mendon.

Ammon Sorensen and family of Arbon, Idaho, are visiting in Mendon.

Miss Marretta Parkinson of Wellsville spent Christmas in Mendon.

There will be a dance Tuesday night, also Friday night, in the amusement hall.

Taxpayers To Meet Again Next Week

The Taxpayers League held another meeting at the court house on Tuesday one that lasted from 10:30 until half past one, and it ended without anything in particular having been accomplished. It was agreed that another meeting shall be held next Tuesday at 10:30 at which another attempt to effect a permanent organization will be made. Olf Cronquist was chairman of Tuesday's meeting and J. Z. Stewart was secretary. There was some discussion of the constitution presented by Mr. Cronquist, but it was not adopted.

B. Y. Benson of Trenton, Carl M. Nelson of North Logan; J. Z. Stewart of Logan; Robert Baxter of Hyrum and others made addresses. County Superintendent of Schools Larsen, made an explanation of the oft repeated statement that Utah spends 88 per cent of her revenue for educational purposes, showing this to be an exaggeration.

Mr. Cronquist wanted to retire from the chairmanship but was finally induced to retain it for another week when an effort to effect a permanent organization will be made.

NEW YEARS EVE ENTERTAINMENT AT MURDOCKS

In Salt Lake and in fact all large cities of the United States, there are cafes where entertainers are employed to make amusements for the patrons who drop in to partake of a light luncheon, to smoke or in wet towns, to take a drink. These places become very popular during this season of the year.

As a little diversion, Logan is to receive a treat of this kind on New Years' Eve. The management of the Murdock Candy Company has taken the lead in this matter and if it proves popular, we may have more occasions of the kind. At Murdock's tomorrow night, beginning at 11:30 o'clock and continuing until 3:30 a. m. there will be five professional entertainers who will dance, sing and furnish amusement for the patrons while they sit and watch the old year go and the New Year come.

Tables are being reserved for the occasion. There will be the full Murdock orchestra in attendance in addition to the Cabaret singers, that will furnish the music for the dancing. Tables are going fast as Mr. Murdock has guaranteed to entertain his guests in a fashion that will be pleasing, bordering onto the city life. There is no question from the present outlook but every table in the parlor will be taken.

DECORATING CLUB FOR NEW YEARS ANNUAL

Rooms to Be Decorated With Evergreens. Decoration Committee To Do the Work

All members of the Commercial Club and their friends are invited to attend the Annual Open House entertainment at the Club on New Year's Day from 3 to 6 p. m. and 7:30 to 12 p. m. The afternoon and evening programs will consist of music, quartets, refreshments, selections, etc. At 5 p. m. Dr. E. G. Peterson will give a short address. This event is one that all members and their friends appreciate and look forward to.

The rooms will be decorated with evergreens and colored festoons. The Decoration committee which is one of the most faithful committees of the Club, will do the decorating this evening.

DR. MEADE TO BE AT U. A. C. TO LECTURE

Dr. E. G. Peterson head of the Extension Department of the Utah Agricultural College, has just received word from Dr. Elwood Meade of California that he will be able to be in Logan during the Roundup on January 29. He has been asked by every other state in the west to lecture at different conventions, but Utah has been the only one to succeed in obtaining his services.

Dr. Meade is at present professor of Rural Institutions in the Agricultural College of California, and in that line has been recognized as one of the greatest authorities in the United States. He has published a number of books on this and other subjects relating to rural life and has come to be considered an expert in irrigation and rural credits.

He will talk to the farmers of Utah on The Relationship Between the Government and the Farmer.

Despite the predictions of Herr Von Skal, it is safe to say that no large force from the census bureau will be needed to keep count of the American Germans who rush back to the beloved Fatherland at the end of the war.

SOME CLASSY BOXING COMING TOMORROW EVE

A Large Crowd Expects to Attend From Various Parts of the Country

The boxing fans of the valley will have a chance to see the last boxing show of the year tomorrow night at the old Princess theater, Logan, and from past records of the men who appear it looks like Promoter Ackman has a dandy exhibition arranged.

The hall has been thoroughly overhauled the ring being in the middle with seats all around which gives everybody a fine view. The boxers will arrive here tonight and are all in good condition and eager for the fray.

The McKenna vs. Gutta bout will bring together two of the cleverest featherweights in this section of the country while the Midkiff vs. Boyd bout will be a hummer from the very start.

Midkiff is an old favorite in Logan and his contest with Billy Hamp one of the gamest boys who ever stepped in the ring will long be remembered by those who witnessed it last year.

The preliminary will bring together two willing local boys in Hickman and Lowe who each have a victory to his credit over the other. The curtain raiser will be full of action also.

The advance sale of seats looks promising for a big house. The show will let out in plenty of time to let those who attend have ample time to celebrate the arrival of the New Year in various ways.

Everybody seemed pleased with the last show Ackman staged here and will surely turn out in a body for this one tomorrow night. The doors will open at 7:45 and the curtain raiser will go on promptly at 8 p. m. Ackman is arranging to put on a comedy bout if he can bring it together. He says it will sure be funny, something new and novel.
